CLOSER LOOK: Avg. winning Beyer from just 2 runnings is 90; main issue for this guy is the footing; sure, he's bred for it but he's just 4-0-1-0 on turf and his 2 victories both came on synthetic; showed some speed in Europe, though he's facing some more intense serious speed here; interesting that they ship halfway around the world to run on footing which so far hasn't proved his best, and it's not as if he comes here riding high either off a 10th-place finish.

Finished with good energy to be 3rd in the Speakeasy at SA Sept. 26; not only was that first time on turf, it was first time vs. winners and first time shipping (he'd debuted at GG earlier in the month; that's all fairly encouraging and he worked splendidly at SA prior to shipping here for this; that ability to rally that he showed in the Speakeasy could prove key here as on paper it looks as though we'll have a hot, contested pace.

Cost $650K so you know there are expectations here; ran 4th in the G2 Norfolk in England June 19 when today's rival and favorite Golden Pal ran 2nd; that wasn't a bad run, though he finished over 5 lengths behind 'Pal so he's got some work to do to cut into, negate or overcome that gap; the good news is he's progressed nicely since so he seems a better horse now than when he faced 'Pal 5 months ago.

A solid 4th in the G3 Futurity; that said, the 3 who finished in front of him that day are all lined up against him again here; the good news is this $475K colt wasn't far at all behind those 3 so if they fit then it's not a long walk to believe this guy fits, too; has speed but it by no means a need-the-lead type; while there are some positives, he finished 4th in his only 2 turf tries vs. winners and this spot is tougher than those.

Bided his time in the Indian Summer here Oct. 4 and finished with good energy for 2nd; couldn't quite get to Bodenheimer that day but today's pace may play even better for this guy; and while he couldn't get to Bodenheimer he finished far clear of the others; doesn't have to come from way out of it, either, as he showed speed in his first 2 starts; been working well and he's trending the right way.

First turf try in the G3 Futurity at BEL Oct. 11 was very nice as he went right to the lead, took pressure throughout and only succumbed late, ending up a good 3rd; the 2 who beat him are lined up against him again here so he has to turn the tables, but he certainly wasn't beaten by much by them; main issue here may be one of style as speed appears his main weapon but there are a bunch of others who may be as quick or quicker; Clement is having a super year.

Filly vs. boys but that didn't matter in the Speakeasy last time out at SA Sept. 26 as she pressed the issue and finished gamely for the win; cost $300K so you know there are some expectations here; Ward won the 2nd running of this race last year with Four Wheel Drive; speed to be in it from the bell but it may well be crowded and busy up front as there a few others in here who figure to go.

Maiden vs. winners but that was the case in the G3 Futurity at BEL Oct. 11 and he darn near won, bidding his time and finishing smartly for 2nd; certainly seems quite comfortable playing this game and he should the right type of pace to chase, though in a big field he'll need all the breaks in terms of traffic to find a way through; Ward won this in 2019 with Four Wheel Drive.

Plenty of speed here so he figures in the thick of it from the start; lone poor outing, his lone loss, came the one time he didn't make the early lead; in his other 3 starts he made the early lead and kept going; trouble is, there's ample other speed lined up against him here so making the lead will be no easy feat; and even if he does get to the front there figure to be more than couple hounding him, likely through strong splits; at least shown he can take pressure and keep going.

$325K son of Into Mischief set the pace in the G2 Bourbon (a route) here Oct. 4 but tired some in the lane to end up 4th; still, considering it was his first route and he did set the pace vs. some toughies that wasn't a bad run; shortens up which may be a big help; after all, his big maiden win came in a turf sprint and then he darn near won a turf sprint stakes at WO, falling just short to Gretzky the Great who's a contender in the BC Juvenile Turf; that said, speed's his main weapon but there's lot of other speed signed up against him.

Filly vs. the boys, though that's not that big a deal when you're talking 2yos; won her only 2 starts so she's due respect on that count alone and of her 2 wins her most impressive came on turf at this type of trip; even so, these are quite a bit tougher than she faced that day but she handles turf, has tactical speed but is no need-the-lead type so never say never.

Certainly been underestimated as he won his turf sprint debut at BEL Sept. 20 at 68-1, then rallied to win the G3 Futurity there Oct. 11 at 15-1; a bunch of today's rivals were his victims in the Futurity so he's already shown he can beat them; best of all he might get a good trip here as there's plenty of speed to give him a target; and while he does his best work in the lane it's not as if he has to come from miles out of it.

Has 3 strong races to start his career; that includes a real good 2nd in a G2 in England June 20, losing narrowly to a top Euro who's here for the G1 BC Juvenile Turf; returned to the U.S. and blasted his rivals in at SAR Aug. 21, including talented stablemate Fauci who he easily beat back into 2nd; can flat sizzle, which can help him flee this far outside post; surely has loads of talent but there's a lot of other speed signed up against him so could going at it hot and heavy early leave him a tad vulnerable come that last half-furlong?; Ward won this last year with Four Wheel Drive.

AE pressed the pace in the G2 Bourbon here Oct. 4 but gave way readily to end up 9th; in his defense, that came routing and despite being by a G1 BC Classic winner maybe that's not the game he wants to play; first 2 starts, both sprints, were quite smart, though both also came on wet going as they were washed off the turf so he remains a big question mark on this footing.

Still trying to figure out how he managed to get up for second in the Grade 2 Bourbon; he broke sharply, but under urging ended up in the middle of the pack; then turning for home he ended up last before finishing with a rush once he moved outside; he's green but there is apparently some talent here; blinkers go on, which has been a good move for Cox, so it is easy to imagine him taking a big step forward here.

He burned a lot of money when he finished second as the heavy chalk in the Grade 2 Pilgrim but it was not a great trip; he broke well enough but was eased off a very slow pace; wonder if he would have been better staying on the rail as he lost a lot of ground when he went wide to make his belated move; the pace should be more honest here and he is reunited with Ortiz who was aboard for his maiden victory; Brown got his first win in this race last year and nobody will be shocked if he gets his second with this guy.

He is the first foal out of a mare who only won on grass so it wasn't surprising he won the Grade 2 Bourbon in his first try on the green stuff for Pletcher who won this race with Pluck in 2010; he was certainly aided by the fast pace but he could not have not gone any wider on the stretch turn so he lost a lot of ground; he could take a big step forward with the experience behind him and we do know he likes this course.

He showed his win in the slop at Saratoga in the With Anticipation was no fluke when he upset the Grade 2 Pilgrim in his latest at Belmont; the Beyer Speed Figure came back solid, too; before getting too excited he did post a half-mile time of more than 50 seconds so it was not surprising he kept rolling; if he wants the lead he'll have to faster here but he did rally to win the With Anticipation so he does seem versatile and he is clearly heading in a positive direction for a sharp trainer.

 He looked good winning his debut running over firm turf at Saratoga and even better winning the $492K Juvenile Downs Juvenile Turf Sprint on soft ground in his race at Kentucky Downs; he was close to the pace without a lot of urging and finished well when Irad turned him loose; he could be the one they have to run down and he's a half to a couple of route winners, three if you count 7 1/2 furlongs on turf; so he should be fine with the added distance; Hootenanny was also going around two turns for the first time when he won this race for Ward in 2014; Irad bails to ride Public Sector but no complaints with his brother taking over.

 He did everything right in winning the Group 2 Vintage Stakes going 7 furlongs at Goodwood in July and if he takes after his mom, Found, he'll thrive with the added distance; Found, who retired with $7.6 million in earnings, won the Breeders' Cup Turf on this course in 2015 and the Group 1 Arc de Triomphe the following year; she was also trained by O'Brien who has won this race four times; this guy missed an intended start in the National Stakes on Sept. 12 but we'll assume he did not come this far for the weather; the pick.

 Irish-bred transitioned well when he came to North America after winning a minor race at Leopardstown; however, the competition is significantly tougher in this spot than he was facing in Southern Cal; plus, there has yet to be a horse based in California win this race; hard not to notice how easily Cadillac handled him in Ireland, too; anything coming out of this barn deserves respect but it is hard to make a strong case for this guy.

 Next to Outadore she has the best Beyer Speed Figure in the field and she earned it in a one-turn mile at Woodbine where she was notching her third-straight win; the horses that have raced since did not fare very well so it is hard say how tough the field was; nonetheless, she was much the best and Pletcher used the Summer as a final prep for Pluck when it was a Grade 3; Casse is no stranger to winning important races, too.

 That was a solid win going this distance and he picked up a nice chunk of change in the $498K More Than Ready Juvenile at Kentucky Downs two back; he came up empty after being close to the fast pace in the Grade 2 Bourbon, though, it did not help that he got forced out going into the first turn and there is a good chance of that happening again if he gets to go.

This seems like a tough spot for a horse that was all-out to win a maiden special weight race at Santa Anita in his last start; the 69 Beyer Speed Figure he received comes in pretty light, too; on a positive note the runner-up did come back to win his next start in a maiden special weight race at Del Mar; nonetheless, it is hard to see him making much of impact if he gets to run. -Randy Goulding

CLOSER LOOK: Avg. winning Beyer for this race is 91; easily won her turf route debut, romped in a sprint washed off the turf in start No. 2, then led her rivals on a merry chase in the G1 Alcibiades on this track at this trip Oct. 2; in other words, there's lots of versatility and professionalism here to like; yes, she got away with things up front in the Alcibiades, something that doesn't figure to happen here with Princess Noor lined up against her; but she's shown she can stalk and finish; worked splendidly since the Alcibiades and the Beyer she got there stacks up well vs. these.

G1 Spinaway win at SAR Sept. 6 was a beaut, and for those of you thinking she was just a sprinter she came back to be a solid 2nd in the G1 Frizette, finishing over 10 lengths clear of 3rd; yes, she couldn't quite challenge Dayoutoftheoffice in the lane but she was far from disgraced in what was her first route; certainly bred to go this far, she's worked well since and the Beyer she got in the Frizette (91) is 2nd in this bunch only to Dayoutoftheoffice's fig that day (95); has enough speed to be close up from the start and continues to trend north.

Unbeaten and basically untested in 3 starts; also, her 95 Beyer earned in the G1 Frizette last time out at BEL Oct. 10 is tops in this field; has speed but is by no means some need-the-lead type, but that speed can help her keep the likes of 'Noor and 'Ravishing in her sights from the start; that Frizette was also her first start in 3 months so she's eligible to move forward.

 While this $950K filly was so visually impressive romping in her first 2 starts, both sprints, the Beyers didn't come back all that hot, providing a dilemma when she went in the G1 Alcibiades; well, she may have been exposed a bit as her Beyer actually went up a peg but she was no factor in the lane, finishing far behind the top 3; in her defense, she was stuck inside, it was her first route and first time around 2 turn; hey, Asmusen hasn't won a million races because he's put his horses in the wrong spots so he apparently still believes.

 $500K Uncle Mo filly looked super winning her first 2 starts, including taking a G2 at CD Sept. 3; hasn't been seen since so trainer Romans opted to skip the traditional preps leading up to this and instead come here with a fresh filly; that could certainly work and she's been working strongly in the interim; even so, that is a bit of a layoff, she's certainly facing tougher, facing new surroundings, a longer trip for the first time and 2 turns for the first time; but don't get us wrong - there's ample talent here.

 When she ran 2nd to Girl Daddy in the G3 Pocahontas she had plenty of trouble, likely the reason she was then favored in the G1 Alcibiades here Oct. 2; however, she was in chase mode throughout and no match for frontrunner winner Simply Ravishing; it's worth noting, though, that 'Ravishing had it all her own way up front in the Alcibiades, something not as likely to happen with the likes of Princess Noor and a couple others with speed; that may translate into this gal getting a nice stalking trip;

 $1.3 million filly is no doubt the queen out West as she's been dominant in her 3 starts, romping in each; that includes a big win going 2 turns at this trip at SA last time out; as visually as impressive as she's been you have to take notice that her Beyers aren't any great shakes; could she have run faster, particularly in the G1 Chandelier?; probably, but she'll have to show all that's under the hood vs. these faster fillies; has speed to press or at least keep 'Ravishing in her sights; Baffert won this with Indian Blessing (2007) and Silverbulletday (1998). -Michael Hammersly

CLOSER LOOK: A progressive filly who was not helped by an inside draw in this crowded field. She is not the sort that needs the lead, which is a plus, but negotiating through 13 rivals will be a difficult assignment. Shane Foley finished second in the jockey standings in Ireland this year and has been aboard for all of Oodnadatta's starts. Pretty Gorgeous, who finished in front of this filly on Sept. 13, returned to win the Group 1 Fillies Mile at Newmarket, England, last month.

This will be the first start at a mile for this filly, but chances are she can handle the assignment. She was beaten a half-length as the 5-2 favorite in the Group 1 Cheveley Park Stakes on Sept. 26 at Newmarket, England, over a course with a stern uphill finish. She tends to run near the front, so gaining a good position in the opening quarter-mile will be vital for new jockey Julien Leparoux.

Trainer Graham Motion won this race at Santa Anita in 2019 with Sharing. This filly had two promising races at Woodbine in late summer, winning the Catch a Glimpse Stakes and rallying to finish second in the Grade 1 Natalma to Lady Speightspeare, who is currently sidelined. Motion said late last month that this filly's two races at Woodbine were closer together than he would have preferred and that her recent training has been positive. She could get a very favorable trip from off the pace.

This filly brings an unbeaten record and brilliant form, having won consecutive stakes at Kentucky Downs at a mile and the Grade 2 Miss Grillo Stakes at 1 1/16 miles at Belmont Park. In both races, she settled off the pace and finished well. If a solid pace develops in this crowded field, jockey Joel Rosario should have this filly well-placed at a pivotal time in early stretch.

The experience of a course win cannot be overstated for this unbeaten Irish-bred filly, who recorded a commanding victory from the front in the Grade 2 Jessamine Stakes on Oct. 7. She led by 1 1/2 lengths through the first half of the race and was clear in the stretch. She has led throughout both of her wins, but is not reliant on that style, trainer Brad Cox said last month. A patient trip will be vital in what should be a hectic race.

The start is vital for this English import. She has had trouble getting out of the gate at times and cannot afford to yield any substantial distance early in this race. The runner-up finish in the Rockel Stakes on Sept. 25 was not a bad effort on a course with an uphill finish. The Rockel has not been a productive race, though. Winner Isabella Giles and third Alba Rose were beaten in stakes in October.

This filly has a sneaky chance to hit the board. Forgive the loss at Del Mar on Sept. 6 in her American debut. After a terrible start, she closed from last to finish seventh, racing in traffic in the stretch. In her following start, this filly put quite a scare into favored Madone at Santa Anita on Oct. 4, closing from ninth in the final quarter-mile to miss by a neck. A clean trip is a must for this closer who will be ridden for the first time by Manuel Franco.

Unbeaten in three starts in Southern California, she has developed a consistent style of stalking the pace and rallying wide to reach the front in the final furlong. There has been improvement with each start. To her credit, she was sternly tested by Tetragonal in the final strides of the Surfer Girl Stakes at Santa Anita to win by a neck on Oct. 4 and held that rival. She will need to be even better to beat this talented field.

Three wins in three countries, including two group stakes wins in sprints in Europe in the summer, puts this well-traveled filly at the top of many selections. She has never raced beyond six furlongs, but that should not be a concern. Her two-length win in the Group 1 Prix Morny against males in France on Aug. 23 was attractive by any measure. Frankie Dettori did not urge her in the final strides and he is back aboard here.

The draw may not be an issue for this filly who has enough speed to save ground in the short run to the first turn. She will be considered trainer Wesley Ward's second-string behind Campanelle, but this filly has fine credentials, too, having won the Grade 3 Matron Stakes at six furlongs as a heavy favorite. Dismiss the loss in England. She has been much sharper in her last two starts.

An easy filly to like considering her win at Gulfstream Park in a minor stakes at a mile on turf in August was followed by a good second to the undefeated Aunt Pearl in the Jessamine over this course on Oct. 7. The outside draw is not ideal, but she was drawn wide in the Jessamine when ridden by Gaffalione, who is back aboard here. She is one of about six fillies in this competitive field with realistic claims.

With an outstanding team behind her trainer Todd Pletcher and jockey Jose Ortiz this filly will gain a certain amount of support by default. This is a tough assignment, though, particularly from a wide draw. She was beaten less than a length by the heavily favored Royal Approval in Matron, but must show considerable improvement to beat these rivals. She could easily be part of trifecta or superfecta results.

Chad Brown has won this race a record five times since it was introduced in 2008. If he wins this filly, it will be a surprise. She showed improvement from a maiden race win at Saratoga on Labor Day to be a good third of five in the Miss Grillo Stakes in her second start. More improvement is needed, but this wide draw in a big field is no help.

Stuck on the also-eligible list, she does not have Beyer Speed Figures competitive with many of her domestic rivals in this race. She has twice finished second in turf stakes at mid-Atlantic tracks on firm and yielding, racing as a stalker or when disputing the pace. She figures to be a longshot, if she gains a starting berth.

CLOSER LOOK: 1st start was impressive, as he wasn't asked for run in the last sixteenth of a mile; the concern is the Beyer, which came up light, and the fact that he was with the race flow there -- the top three finishers were all closers, behind an early pace duel -- gave him license to post a huge figure; will need to take a big step forward here in terms of his Beyer, all while working out a clean trip from the rail in this bulky field; siding with others.

First starter from the dam, who was a multiple graded stakes winner and a millionaire, with some of those earnings due to a 3rd-place finish in the BC F&M Sprint; like the fact that this runner overcame a controlled pace to win with a stretch run in his latest but he was no threat behind Essential Quality and Keepmeinmind in the Breeders' Futurity, with no clear excuse; Beyers suggest he has his work cut out for him.

Could not run down today's ML favorite, Jackie's Warrior, in either of his last two starts but that rival was loose on the lead in both of those races, a scenario that may or may not play out today; at the very least the fractions promise to be quicker, and that works to this colt's advantage, as he may be able to turn the tables given a quick pace up front; if it's a contested pace his stock rises higher; dam posted all 4 of her wins in sprints but this colt could handle his two-turn debut with the right set up; top pick.

Comes off a front-running score in a one-turn mile at Belmont but a loose lead is not a luxury he's likely to have here, as there's plenty of proven speed in the field; that will make it tough for him to run back to that 81 Beyer, and he'd need to improve upon that figure to win this; kin to a couple of nice runners in Bronze Star (5 wins, 2 stakes, $195K earnings) and Dawn the Destroyer (earned $556K, multiple graded stakes placed, including 3rd in BC F&M Sprint at 5); dam won her career debut and a stakes race (the J J'sdream Stakes) as a 2-year-old.

Dam was strictly a sprinter, with all 13 of her starts coming in sprints (2 wins, multiple stakes placed), but this colt was a sharp winner in his route debut in the Breeders' Futurity; he rated nicely off the pacesetter Upsider and made his run on the turn before easily holding off the late run from Keepmeinmind in an impressive score; the fact that he has proven he can relax off the pace is key, as a contested pace would hurt the chances of main foe Jackie's Warrior; needs to avoid getting caught too close to a wild pace but if he can do that, and the fractions are in fact rapid, he's certainly going to benefit in a big way.

Might be the right value play in this field for exotics if he's close to that 30-1 Morning Line, as he didn't run a bad race in the Breeders' Futurity, when 2nd to Essential Quality; he was caught down on the rail and inside horses on the turn but he extricated himself nicely in the lane and closed with interest; he was unable to get to the winner but the traffic trouble did cost him position while Essential Quality was free and clear; adds blinkers for this, and could show more speed under new rider Jose Ortiz.

The one to catch and the one to beat, as he is the only runner in this field to have posted a triple-digit Beyer; that came in his last race, the Champagne, when he was able to control the pace from the start; he was also loose on the lead in the Hopeful, another race where he posted a solid figure; there is speed to his inside, which could mean he faces a pressured pace for the first time, and that could make it tough for him to run back to those figures; he rated kindly in his bow but that was a 5F sprint, and this is his 1st try around two turns; given the short price and the likelihood of a tougher trip I'll take a shot against him on the win end; another interesting fact; his dam won 19 races, all sprints, and no stakes or route tries.

Dam was 0-for-2 but she produced BC Sprint champ Mitole, who earned over $3 million; this colt was a game winner in his latest but he beat only four rivals to earn his diploma, and the resulting Beyer leaves him well short when compared with the top contenders in this field; certainly seems to have his work cut out for him.

Exits a key race, with show horse Spielberg and 5th-place finisher Dyn O Mite both returning to beat maidens in their next starts, with respective Beyers of 85 and 55; it's worth noting, however, that those two runners were both against the closer-friendly race flow, and thus potential upgrades, while ralliers (like this runner) are potential downgrades coming off this favorable flow; even with that trip in that last one the resulting Beyer isn't good enough to make him a contender today.

Behind a few of these same runners last time out, and today's wide draw doesn't help his cause; clearly has more ability than he showed there, as that maiden score was sharp, but the fact that he faded in the lane on the stretch-out suggests he's best when on or near the lead at the moment, and that type of trip won't work for him in this race, especially from this post; solid works since the Breeders' Futurity give him some appeal but he would certainly be a surprise here. -Kenny Peck
